Verne Goodwin Mira Mesa Senior Center Reorganization

The Verne Goodwin Mira Mesa Senior Center, 8460 Mira Mesa Boulevard, opened in November 1986 to serve community seniors. Two non-profit senior organizations – Mira Mesa Golden Friends and FASCA (Filipino-American Senior Citizens Association, San Diego North County) – conduct meetings and programs at the Center for seniors, and are partners in being responsible to the City for running the building. The Center was renamed the "Verne Goodwin Mira Mesa Senior Center" in 2006 to honor Verne Goodwin, a leader in MM and the first MM "Volunteer of the Year.".

In November, 2014, a new management structure known as the Mira Mesa Senior Center Management Committee, was chosen to reorganize and streamline center operations. The committee, comprised of presidents of Golden Friends and FASCA along with several members from each organization, plans to improve and expand center programs. Currently, the Senior Center offers noon lunches for a nominal donation. For additional information, or to apply for the program, contact Nutrition Coordinator Gloria Supnet at 858-578-8224. Currently there are morning exercise, painting classes and blood pressure checks during lunch every Friday. For information about FASCA membership and activities, call (858) 271-9385. For information about Golden Friends membership and activities, call (858) 578-7325. Seniors can access current information about programs offered through the new website – www.MiraMesaSeniorCenter.com. – or via phone at (858) 578-7325 or email at MiraMesaSeniorCenter@gmail.com.

Have an idea for a program or service to benefit our seniors in MM? Please call or email us with your ideas and suggestions. We are here to SERVE!

MMTC President's Message for January 2015

Happy New Year! And many thanks for being a member of MMTC. This promises to be a very exciting year. With gas prices falling like a rock, despite the protestations of those in the financial markets, we will all have a few more dollars to spread around. In my book that's a good thing.

Congratulations to Julius Hitchens, our 2014 Volunteer of the Year. His work with Mira Mesa youth has earned our recognition as the volunteer of the year. Recreation, particularly organized youth sports is a vital part of our community. While many parents participate as coaches and team leaders as their children grow up, there are those who are still there year after year and generation after generation. Julius is one of those incredible people who keeps everything moving and working.

Speaking of recreation, the Mira Mesa Recreation Council needs some community to rally round. This council is a group of volunteers, headed by Joe Frichtel, who concern themselves with the long-term needs for recreational facilities in Mira Mesa. The first phase of the Mira Mesa Community Park update will be finalized along with selecting of a contractor to begin this grand project.

According to the Recreation Council Website, "This phase of the project will include four new baseball fields, an open space area, restrooms/ snack bar building, walking trail around the perimeter, shade structure and traffic calming measures along New Salem including a new pedestrian walk way safely connecting the old and new park areas". It will also include a monument sign highlighting Mira Mesa "Volunteer of the Year" recipients going back to 1984.

But what about the future? Not next year, but ten or more years from now. Will there be sufficient facilities to serve that population? Remember, Mira Mesa is still growing with at least one large development still in the preliminary planning stage. Mira Mesa is currently far short of the city mandated space for population-based parks including community parks and neighborhood parks. It is absolutely vital to the future of Mira Mesa that the Recreation Council and the Community Planning Group acquire our full support in demanding future park developments provide the proper amount of active use park space.

It is important to get involved in the beginning of the projects to set down the exact current and future needs of our growing community. Once a project is approved by the City it is too late to decide there should be more recreation space or better facilities. We have to make a case for that NOW.

So pay close attention in the upcoming months when Joe mentions Rec. Council issues at the MMTC monthly meetings. Attend a Recreation Council Meeting or two. And better yet, join the Recreation Council and help make Mira Mesa a better and stronger community well into your children's future. Ted Brengel

Enjoy Reading!

On January 27, 2015, the Mira Mesa Library's Banned Book Club, a "freedom to read" theme, will discuss a science fiction classic, Isaac Asimov's Foundation Trilogy (Foundation; Foundation and Empire; Second Foundation). MM Park & Recreation Information by Al Radick "Le BonTon Roulet"

Below is a listing of ALL the lovely Mira Mesa Park and Rec centers along with the current facilities at each site and the proposed upcoming upgrades.

 MIRA MESA COMMUNITY PARK off New Salem ST. /858 538-8122 This park is the aging "Grande Dame" of Mira Mesa parks. Her campus has facilities for several local groups as well as the San Diego Police and Fire Depts. A long overdue three phase multiyear expansion and renovation project is scheduled to begin in 2015.

 HOURGLASS FIELD COMMUNITY PARK off Black Mountain Road /858 538-8153

This park site was once an auxiliary landing field for NAS Miramar which looked like an 'hourglass' from the air. Mira Mesa's new-kid-on-the-block community park shares many of its facilities with Miramar College. > Field House > Ned Baumer Aquatic Center > Restroom & Concession Building > Children's play area > Tennis Courts with lights > Multi-Sport Fields with & without lights > Multi-Station Par Fitness Course > SDP&R Center Manager's Office > SDP&R Area Manager's Office

LOPEZ RIDGE NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Calle Cristobal /858 538-8171

This jewel of a park sits on the rim of Lopez Canyon. It could easily be described as a 'mini community park'. > Community Meeting Center with a large covered patio > Outdoor Basketball Court with lights > Multi-Sport Fields > Multi-Station Par Fitness Course > Trail entrance to Lopez Canyon > Sun Shaded children's play area > SDP&R Center Manager's Office

MADDOX NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Flanders St. / 858 525-8213 This park has the largest and most colorful children's play area in Mira Mesa with a large Gazebo to keep Mom cool while the kids play. And, WOW, a big play area for Woofs of all ages too ! > Children's play areas > Gazebo > Off Leash Dog Park

CAMINO RUIZ NEIGHBORHOOD PARK at end of Camino Ruiz /538-8171 Perched on the edge of Penasquitos Canyon this park site was once planned to be part of a bridge over the canyon extending Camino Ruiz to Rancho Penasquitos. Known as Horsehead Park during the planning process, the resulting park came from a cauldron of animosity and heated emotions. The shade covering over the picnic tables will be increased in 2015.

> Restroom & Concession Building > Multi-Sport Fields > Children's play areas > Pétanque Court > Outdoor Basketball, 1/2 court > Gazebos > DG Walking Path on the edge of the canyon > Hiking Trail entrance to Los Penasquitos Canyon Preserve

BREEN NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Polaris

Once an elementary school site comprised of several portable classroom buildings, this park named in honor of Ellen R. Breen, "The Dean of Principals". The shade covering over the picnic tables will be increased in 2015. > Restroom Building > Plaza of Flags > Outdoor Basketball Court > Children's play areas > Multi-Sport Fields > Walking Path > Ellen R. Breen Memorial > Gazebos

WESTVIEW NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Westview Parkway A park named Westview located on the eastern edge of Mira Mesa. Hmmm, don't ask, we have no idea. But, hey, it's a really enjoyable park with a large Gazebo. A construction project to build a shade cover over a children's play area will be completed in 2015.

> Restroom Building > Multi-Sport Fields > Children's play areas > Gazebo > Off Street Parking

MESA VERDE NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Gold Coast. Once again, we have no idea how this park came by its name, it just is, so don't ask. It's got a newer play ground for the kids so go enjoy. > Children's play areas > Outdoor Basketball Courts > Multi-Sport Fields

MESA VIKING NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Westonhill Dr. A park named in honor of the Vikings, a legendary group of seafaring scoundrels who ran aground in Mira Mesa. The legend has it that many of their descendants are serving on the MM Recreation Council, Town Council or Community Planning Group ... Really! See ... this is what you get when you ask, so go chill and enjoy.

> Children's play areas > Multi-Sport Fields

WALKER NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Hillary Dr. This park is "sandwiched" between Walker and Wagenheim schools and has the newest children's play area in Mira Mesa. A major expansion & improvement project is scheduled to begin in 2016 to merge this park with the Wagenheim Middle School playing fields. > Children's play area

SANDBURG NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Avenida del Gato This park is the site of the Tim Allen Memorial Bench. Tim was tragically killed while en route to "his" park when he learned of some vandalism in progress. > Children's play area > Tim Allen Memorial Bench

CHRISTA MCAULIFFE NEIGHBORHOOD PARK off Winterwood Lane. This park was originally planned to be a large community park named in honor of an astronaut who died in the Challenger Space Shuttle disaster. Unfortunately, much of the land in Christa's park was taken over by Fairy Shrimp, a protected species. Neighbors have reported seeing Christa's ghost chasing those darned shrimp away from her park after the sun sets. This serene little park is sometimes referred to as the 'Hidden Park'. Anybody want to buy four acres of inaccessible unusable park land that the Fairy Shrimp aren't using? Have we got-a-deal for you ! > Children's play area

Want more information about park amenities, locations, hours, etc., go to the Mira Mesa Town Council website at www.miramesatowncouncil.org/mira_mesa_parks.
