President's Message
-Ted Brengel-

I hope everyone is enjoying Springtime. As I watch the evening news and see what our brethren in the East are enduring, I am ever so thankful to be enjoying the bounty of our fair community.

I have been asked to participate in a Police Community Relations Board next week. This is basically a group assembled to help the Police Department discover as much as they can from people in the communities about what is right and wrong with what they are doing. I have never attended one of these, but I thought that my preparation would be just asking as many people as possible what they think about our Police Department.

First let me say that we are indeed blessed to live in such a peaceful community. I say this because the people who have responded to my questions, both on Nextdoor.com and in person, are not especially concerned about crime, Interestingly, most of the issues people raised have to do with lack of enforcement of traffic laws, code compliance enforcement, vagrancy (homelessness), and bad streets. I did receive some inputs regarding other issues such as burglary and car prowls, and I will bring those up, but I'll tell you the first response of Captain Knighten's capable officers. Have you joined a Neighborhood Watch Group, or if one does not exist, have you taken steps to start one?

So, I am going to carry these messages to the meeting, but I know that in some cases, the answer will be, yes we can help by increasing patrols in that area and by alerting our officers to the problem, but if a group of neighbors spend just a few minutes per week keeping their eyes open and sharing information with one another it will make us vastly more effective. Using Nextdoor.com is one giant step in the right direction. Contacting our Community Relations Officer, Christine Santos (858) 538-8120, is a very

A Message from Councilman Cate's Office
-James Hauser-

Councilmember Chris Cate proudly represents the Sixth District of the City of San Diego which includes the neighborhoods of Clairemont Mesa, Kearny Mesa, Mira Mesa, Miramar, Park Village, and Sorrento Valley.

As Councilmember, Chris has been lauded for his solution-oriented approach to public safety, economic development, and the environment. From policy proposals to community projects, everything his office proposes aligns with District 6's priorities: public safety, infrastructure, the environment, the economy, and civic engagement.
Serving for the second consecutive year as Chairman of the City's Public Safety and Livable Neighborhood Committee, Chris has worked diligently to pass a new landmark agreement for police officers, appointed a new Police Chief, ramped up the 911 Dispatch Department, established a robust D6 Neighborhood Watch program, resulting in an overall decrease in crime.

Councilmember Cate believes investing in neighborhood infrastructure is vital to enhancing the quality of life for District 6 residents. During his

The Mira Mesa Town Council is a 501(c)(4) non-profit organized to foster the public welfare of the community. Meetings are held on the first Monday of every month at the Mira Mesa Library at 7pm. See page 12 for newsletter advertising rates and contact info.

Local poll workers needed for June 5 election

Poll workers, especially those who are bilingual in any one of six specific languages, are needed for the June 5 Gubernatorial Primary Election. The Registrar's office is required by federal law to provide bilingual speakers and voting materials to voters who speak Spanish, Filipino, Vietnamese and Chinese. In addition, a survey conducted by the University of California, Berkeley showed a need for speakers of Arabic and Korean at just under 90 precincts across the county so the Registrar's office is also recruiting poll workers who are bilingual in those languages.

To become a poll worker, applicants must be a U.S citizen and registered to vote in California, or lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States. Poll workers must have transportation to their assigned polling location, access to the internet to take an online training and attend a two-hour class in person.

Poll workers receive a stipend ranging from $100 to $175 depending on the assignment, and those who are bilingual receive an additional $15 if they are assigned to provide language assistance to voters.

Apply online at sdvote.com. For more information, call (858) 565-5800 or email pollworker@sdcounty.ca.gov.

22 marijuana growers want permits in Mira Mesa

-By Julie Stalmer, April 17, 2018

The city has 40 golden tickets, also known as permits, to hand out to those wanting to cultivate cannabis locally. There are currently 66 applicants vying for these permits. There are no limitations as to how many marijuana production facilities can be in any one district. Kearny Mesa has 10 applicants (after 3 withdrew). Mira Mesa has the most at 22 applicants. Kearny Mesa and Mira Mesa are in councilmember Chris Cate's district. According to the planning group, Cate tried to limit his district to 14 grow facilities but was overruled by his colleagues.

Filipino Fast-Food Chain Jollibee Coming to Mira Mesa

-By Candice Woo, April 5, 2018

Jollibee, an enormously popular Filipino-style fast-food chain, will open a large new restaurant in Mira Mesa. Founded 40 years ago in the Philippines, the company has thousands of stores around the world; it first expanded into the U.S. in 1998. Its signature dishes include Chickenjoy, or seasoned fried chicken, the sweet-sauced hot dog-studded Jolly Spaghetti, Yum Burgers, and Halo-Halo, a classic shaved ice treat.

Though there used to be a small outpost of Jollibee in Mira Mesa, it shuttered back in 2013. A branch exists in National City, but the incoming eatery will be more in line with the modern design of its newer openings. The 3,200-square-foot site will include an outdoor patio and a drive-thru. The project, which is in the permitting stages, will land on a yet-undeveloped lot on Mira Mesa Boulevard; it's slated to open in the second quarter of 2019. And the National City outpost will reportedly undergo a remodel.

Said Mesa Centers' Brett Feuerstein, "After really learning about Jollibee, we couldn't be more excited to bring such a strong Filipino brand to Mira Mesa. The time and energy they are putting into this beautiful new building will help ensure that this is a spot that the community will be enjoying for years to come."

Think of it this way. Mira Mesa comprises about 16 square miles and includes over 23,000 homes. If we depend totally on police patrols with no help from residents, just think of how many officers and patrols would be required for the kind of safety we all want. Truthfully, without our help through the use of neighborhood organizations, the Police really don't stand a chance against the lawless elements of our society.

And now that I am on lawlessness, let me mention the way you people drive. How many have ever tried pulling up to a stop sign with the intent of a full stop, not when you are half-way into the lane of cross traffic, but at the line provided as the proper place to stop? The idea is you first stop, then yield to other traffic and then, only when it is safe, you proceed. Novel concept, huh? And does anyone ever really stop for that red signal when turning right-on-red? Yeah, right, sometimes I'm just plain silly.

Here's another bright idea. What if you figured out that you are not a world-class race drive who can drive under any conditions at breakneck speed and manage to avoid all obstacles while answering a text message? Remember, speed limits are set based upon many factors, only one of which involves you. Did you ever pause to think how incredibly selfish it is to speed down a street with no concern that cross traffic will not be able to see you in time to avoid you as they attempt to cross or turn onto the street? I guess that everyone knows that problem cost one of our dear neighbors her life a couple of weeks ago. And what about little kids and your neighbor's pets. No, they shouldn't be in the street, but are you going to maim or kill them for this oversight. That's what speeding and distracted driving do—they kill.

I could go on for days, as could each of you. And of course, each of us blames everyone else. My wife constantly reminds me that the real speed limit may not be what is printed on the sign—it is often slower.

Think about this though. There are about 75,000 souls in Mira Mesa, maybe half of them drivers who drive at least a small distance each day. What if each of those 37,500 drivers scrupulously obeys traffic laws and is always courteous… …except once per day. That one little slip times all of us who drive creates one fine mess. My point is, to truly be a safe and courteous driver, that behavior must be there all the time you are behind the wheel. It takes practice.

Okay, I'll admit I'm am truly not a perfect driver. I speed and I sometimes blow through a "pink" light, among other things. But what if everyone who reads this (both of them) were to accept a challenge to think about their driving and try to do just one thing better and safer this week? Let's all give it a try. Who knows, the life you save might be that of someone you love.

Have a fantastic May. And Please, please, please join us at the Senior Center on the evening of May 5th for the Volunteer of the Year Dinner. You can sign-up online on the MMTC Website and it is very inexpensive. Plus you will help us honor Tom Derr, one of our true Mira Mesa heroes.

first term in office, more than 12,000 potholes have been filled, over 120 miles of streets repaired, and more than 24,000 linear feet of sidewalk replaced.

Cate was the first member of the San Diego City Council to demand the Public Utilities Department investigate abnormally high water bills and organized a community town hall with Water Department officials and affected community members. Due to this effort hundreds of D6 residents received refunds and the City has now implemented new meter readers to prevent this from ever happening again.

Since his first day in office, Councilmember Cate's team has resolved 2,471 neighborhood issues, attended more than 2,300 community events, and recognized nearly 10,000 constituents for their service. He will continue to work to advocate on behalf of D6 residents, help grow D6 small businesses, rebuild D6 infrastructure, and improve the public safety for all D6 neighborhoods.

Cate takes pride in the level of service his office provides and will work hard to continue his goal of improving the quality of life for all District 6 residents.

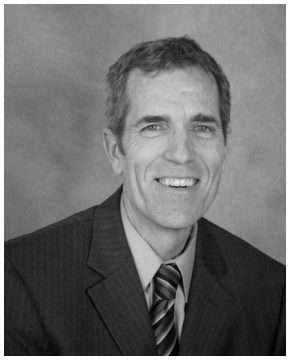
San Diego Unified honored for best academic gains in the nation

-John Lee Evans
Trustee, San Diego Unified School District



San Diego's Superintendent Cindy Marten recently appeared at the National Press Club in Washington, DC when it was announced that San Diego Unified had made the biggest gains in the nation in reading and math scores. Sample testing was done in 25 big city school districts across the nation. Students were tested in fourth grade and eighth grade.

We have focused on improved student achievement for all students across the district since the inception of Vision 2020 several years ago. Now we are seeing the result of all the great work that the teachers and students have been doing. There have been changes in recent years to the state testing, which makes comparison to past years difficult. However, the National Assessment of Educational Progress is a common assessment used across the country to measure student progress over time as part of the National Report Card.

The high scores are a testament to the work that all of the students and teachers have been doing throughout elementary and middle school. This means that they will be well prepared for high school. We have been working towards higher levels of meaningful high school graduation as we approach the graduation of the Class of 2020. Now we are also placing a focus on early literacy with the ambitious goal of having all of our third graders in 2020 at a proficient reading level.

We do not directly focus on testing results, but test scores go up when effective teaching strategies are focused on the whole child. That is why we continue to focus on the arts, athletics, technology and many other programs to fully prepare our students. And take a moment to thank our teachers for a job well done.
