Don't Forget

MMTC Meeting October 7th

President's Message
-Ted Brengel-

The Mira Mesa Street Fair is upon us, and what an event it will be! Rides, entertainment, food and exhibits. The first Mira Mesa Street Fair was organized by the Mira Mesa Town Council in 1999 and has now become a regular annual event on the first Saturday in October. It is completely organized and hosted by community volunteers. It has quickly earned a reputation as one of the best 'community fairs' in the county. The Street Fair committee is dedicated to maintaining the community atmosphere and minimizing the commercialization that has come with growth of many of the other events held around the county. So, join us on October 5. You'll be glad you did.

September was a very busy month with all our community groups engaged in important projects and decisions that will have far-reaching impacts on Mira Mesa. So, shifting gears from the Street Fair, let me mention those groups, what they do and why that is important to you.

To me there is a triumvirate, so to speak, comprised of the Town Council, the Planning Group, and the Recreation Council/Recreation Advisory Group. These groups comprise the voice of our community when it comes to interactions with City and County entities. That is to say, in matters where a vote of the people is simply not possible, elected officials and civil servants use the input from these organizations to formulate their planning efforts in Mira Mesa.

The Mira Mesa Town Council is committed to helping make Mira Mesa all it can be. It holds monthly meetings, generally on the first Monday of each month (except July). At these gatherings people can meet elected officials and their representatives from all levels of government, hear the latest community news and, most importantly, enjoy meeting some wonderful Mira Mesa people.

Mental Health Awareness Day

By Kaanchan S Farkiya

World Mental Health Day is celebrated every year on October 10th. Its goal is to raise awareness of mental health around the world. This year the main focus is "suicide prevention". On this day, several health organizations schedule activities to raise awareness of the need to allocate more resources for the treatment of mental disorders. According to the World Health Organization there are many different types of mental illness including anxiety, depression, psychosis, etc. Mental illness is treatable by improving self-state of mind and utilizing positive thinking. In recent years, many international bodies have increasingly focused on happiness.

Every individual's well-being is directly associated with their daily activities. As a result, this factor is used to measure how well a country is doing. (Part of the world happiness report). So if you start your everyday life with enthusiasm, have punctuality in your own schedule, and finish your day with gratitude then there is a large possibility of an ultimate sense of satisfaction from knowing that you are doing your best.

Organizations taking part in this initiative include, at the local level, Mental Health America of San Diego County, as well as international organizations such as World Federation for Mental Health which is dedicated to promoting mental health through advocacy, education, research and resources. There are several holistic factors in our life that contribute to our overall health and mental condition. Happiness is one of them. In 2012, the World Happiness Report found that happiness is the ultimate desire for people despite of age, gender or location around the world.

Below are behaviors that can lead to happiness. Feel free to add a check mark next to activities you have achieved as well as those that you may now want to try:

- Getting a good night's sleep
- High Intensity exercise
- Time-restricted eating
- Eating a balanced diet
- Laughing more
- Socializing with people who uplift you
- Surrounding yourself with positive people
- Going outside and being active
- Thinking Positive
- Scheduling tasks
- Exploring hobbies
- Setting a goal and starting work on it
- Learning something new
- Helping others
- Taking a break from social media
- Get help from communities, organizations, and experts

Let's celebrate World Mental Health Day and help spread the awareness in our community. Good physical and mental health is something we all need in order to live a happy life. According to the Origins of Happiness report, happiness can increase by 20%, if we work on treating our mental health issues. Generations of studies by psychologists, sociologists, and economists have proved that happiness is a state of mind affected by circumstances that surround you. Some effects are direct, some are from indirect, and we can't control everything around us. However, by thinking positive and believing in yourself you can dramatically improve your overall health.

MMTC 4th of July Committee Selects "2020 – Mira Mesa Honors Our Heroes" as 2020 Fourth of July Parade Theme!

By Pam Stevens

The parade theme honors heroes from all walks of life, military, first responders, and community volunteers, according to Parade Chair Charlene Ellsworth. Sign up at Street Fair October 5th at either the MMTC Booth or the MM Women's Club Booth if you would like to help plan the 2020 Mira Mesa 4th of July Celebration. Parade chair Charlene Ellsworth will be dividing her time between those two – as well as possibly helping at the Scripps Mesa Fireworks booth. MMTC 4th of July Committee chair Bari Vaz and the rest of the Committee are getting organized early this time. More help is always appreciated!

Do you know a World War II veteran who lives in Mira Mesa? MMTC is seeking "Greatest Generation" veterans who could possibly serve as 4th of July Parade Grand Marshal(s). If you have someone to suggest, let us know at Street Fair or the upcoming MMTC meeting October, or email fourthofjuly@miramesatowncouncil.org.

MMTC Bylaws Review Committee Recommends Changes

by Jeff Stevens for the Bylaws Review Committee

The MMTC Bylaws review committee, chaired by parliamentarian Charlene Ellsworth, has recommended some changes to the bylaws to be more consistent with current practices. One problem with the existing bylaws is that they were written for a time of postal mail and paper checks, which have been superseded in many cases by electronic mail, websites and electronic checks. For example, the current bylaws require 10 days notice for a special meeting, which ensured that a notice by postal mail would reach all members, but also defeated the purpose of having a special meeting to deal with an urgent issue. The new bylaws reduce the minimum notification time to 24 hours. The previous bylaws required two signatures on each check, but the bank cannot enforce that requirement and it doesn't work with electronic checks. That is changed so that checks for more than $1,000 require written confirmation from a second authorized signer (the President, Secretary and Treasurer are the authorized signers). The treasurer will also be authorized to use a debit card on the account.

One significant change is extending the terms of Board members to two years. Anyone who has been on the Board knows that it takes some time to learn how to be an effective Board member, and this change is intended to reduce premature turnover.

The full Bylaws changes are posted on the MMTC website and will be on the agenda for approval at the October meeting.

Sabrina Bazzo Announces Plans to Run for School Board

By Pam Stevens

Mira Mesa Town Council members heard it first: During the "Open Forum" portion of the September 12 MMTC meeting, Sabrina Bazzo, past president of the Mira Mesa High School Foundation, said she was planning to run for the San Diego Unified School Board. Incumbent District A Board Member John Lee Evans recently announced his plans to retire from the Board at the end of his term in 2020. Two days later Bazzo, with Evans' support, made it official. On September 11 Bazzo posted on Facebook a photo of herself and Evans, along with this statement:

"Hello all, I am proud to announce that I will be running for the San Diego Unified School District Board of Education, District A seat…John Lee Evans, current Vice President of the Board, will be stepping down and has endorsed me to run for this vacancy."

Bazzo has created a Facebook page for more information about her campaign, "Sabrina Bazzo for San Diego Unified School Board, District A."

Sabrina Bazzo is a longtime Mira Mesa resident. While raising two daughters with her husband, she has been an active volunteer at Sandburg Elementary School, Challenger Middle School, and Mira Mesa High School. She has also served on the Mira Mesa Town Council Board as a Director at Large, and she is currently serving as the editor of the MMTC Newsletter, The Mosaic. MMTC honored Sabrina Bazzo as the 2016 Mira Mesa Volunteer of the Year for her volunteer service to the community of Mira Mesa over the years.

The Mira Mesa Town Council is a non-profit volunteer civic group, with membership open to all community residents and representatives of organizations in Mira Mesa. MMTC provides information to the public and offers a forum for discussing community issues together with elected officials and their representatives. MMTC does not endorse candidates for office. Candidates may speak for 2 minutes each during the "Open Forum" time at any monthly meeting. During election season MMTC organizes Candidates' Forums so people can hear from the individuals in various local races.

High Density Housing Proposed for Mira Mesa Shopping Centers

By Jeffry L Stevens, Chair, Mira Mesa Community Planning Group

At the September 16, 2019 meeting of the Mira Mesa Community Plan Advisory Committee, a consultant for the City of San Diego presented concepts for building high density (29 units/acre minimum) housing on all of the commercial shopping areas along Mira Mesa Blvd from Reagan Road to Interstate 15. The new development would be on areas currently used for surface parking or retail stores. The consultant presented 3 proposals for the "Mira Mesa Town Center" area, which includes the Mira Mesa Mall and Target shopping center, and the "Mira Mesa Gateway", which includes the Market Center and extends west to Seafood City. The three options are called "Community Village," "Urban Village," and "Lifestyle Center", each with differing levels of redevelopment. The Community Village and Urban Village would retain the major Anchor stores such as Target, Vons and Home Depot, while the Lifestyle Center would replace all of them. Images for the two "Urban Village" concepts are shown here. Pictures of the other options as well as the full presentation can be found on the Planning Group page of the MMTC website https://www.miramesatowncouncil.org/mira-mesa-community-planning-group/.

This presentation came as quite a surprise. While we are aware that the City is looking for ways to alleviate the current housing shortage, a proposal for redevelopment of this intensity was unexpected. The Community Plan update process started with an assessment of existing conditions, a detailed analysis that is posted on the City website https://www.sandiego.gov/planning/community/cpu/miramesa/atlas-documents. The last chapter of this document is titled "Opportunities and Constraints" and it identifies five "focus areas" which it describes this way: "Focus areas are intended to address a generalized area where additional analysis and consideration is warranted to support existing city policies and the goals of the community by building on the overall strength of Mira Mesa as an employment center and an inclusive family-oriented neighborhood." Apparently, this proposal is what they meant by that. In addition to these two commercial areas, the other "focus areas" are prime industrial areas in Sorrento Mesa and Miramar, and we have not yet seen City recommendations for those areas.

There are a lot of issues with this proposal. To summarize a few of them: 1) there has as yet been no consideration for additional schools, parks or other population-based public facilities that would be required to support the additional population; 2) the City seems to regard surface parking lots as wasted space, but parking lots allow residents easy access to heavily used commercial areas; 3) the projects would follow the new City policies that reduce parking requirements, which would almost certainly lead to parking impacts on the surrounding residential areas; 4) dense projects like this are based on the idea that people will primarily use public transit instead of privately owned vehicles, but transit in Mira Mesa is not nearly good enough for this now or in any future plans yet developed; and 5)

MMTC Seeks Nominations for 2019 Mira Mesa Volunteer of the Year

By Pam Stevens

The Mira Mesa Town Council invites members and the community at large to submit their nominations for the 2019 Mira Mesa Volunteer of the Year. (See nomination form on the MMTC website, www.miramesatowncouncil.org) The due date is November 11, 2019 (Monday after the November MMTC meeting). Mail or email your nomination to Jeff Stevens (jeffstev@san.rr.com), or return your nomination form in person at the Nov. 4 MMTC meeting.

Honoring a longtime community volunteer as Mira Mesa Volunteer of the Year is an annual tradition of MMTC since1984 when Verne Goodwin was selected as the first honoree and MMTC named its college scholarship fund after him. The Volunteer of the Year need not be a Mira Mesa Town Council member, but should be someone who has made a significant contribution through volunteer work over the years s/he has been involved with the community. The annual dinner is also a fundraiser for MMTC's Verne Goodwin Scholarship Fund, which awards college scholarships to graduating high school seniors who have been involved with community service.

Brief biographies of nominees will be published in the December 2019 MMTC newsletter. MMTC members will vote to select the 2019 Mira Mesa Volunteer of the Year at the December MMTC meeting on Monday, December 2, 2019. (Anyone who joins MMTC as a member on or before Saturday, November 2, 2019 is eligible to take part in the voting.) Further information and a list of past volunteers of the year can be found on the MMTC website.

there has as yet been no estimate of traffic impacts and they are likely to be understated if the City assumes people will primarily take public transit.

When we did the last community plan update 30 years ago, we had the developers and property owners working with us, and so we had good information about what would be developed, and could do a detailed analysis of the future population and identify needed public facilities in the Community Plan. This worked very well and Mira Mesa has built out according to that plan with very few changes. We have a fine community and our estimates of future population were right on. Another significant problem is that these plans are coming entirely out of the City and its consultants with little if any interaction with the property owners, so it is not clear that if the City were to revise the Community Plan like this, that any of it would actually get built. A good community plan should be a blueprint for what is going to be developed over a long time period together with plans for improvements to support additional population and mitigation for any negative impacts.

Mira Mesa Community Plan update meetings are being held at 5:30 PM immediately prior to the Mira Mesa Community Planning Group meetings on the third Monday of each month at the Mira Mesa library. All meetings are open to the public.

"Urban Village" concepts for redevelopment of Mira Mesa commercial etcetera, etcetera...

MMTC also hosts several events such as the 4th of July Parade and Family Fun Day, and the Mira Mesa Street Fair. It sponsors a high school senior scholarship program where awards are based upon volunteerism as well as an annual dinner where one person selected from the community is honored as the top volunteer.

The Mira Mesa Community Planning Group is comprised of Mira Mesa volunteers and is an officially chartered City organization operating under policies set by the San Diego City Council. Its purpose is to review changes to land use within the community and advise the City as to whether or not they are appropriate from our perspective. Meetings are generally held on the 3rd Monday of each month. For current information on Planning Group activities see https://www.miramesatowncouncil.org/mira-mesa-community-planning-group/.

Recently, the Planning Group has recommended approval of the development plan for the 3Roots project in Carroll Canyon. It reviews many diverse projects from shopping centers and apartment complexes to marijuana production facilities and signage plans.

A major part of Planning Group time over the past year has been spent in formulating an update to our community plan. Meetings of the Community Plan Update (CPU) Committee are held just before planning group meetings. Our existing community plan was released in 1992, and while it includes many updates, it needs to be updated to help us lead Mira Mesa into the middle of the 21st Century.

Planning Group meetings and meetings of the Community Plan Update Committee are open to all. Those who attend have a front-row seat to the development of the future Mira Mesa and the ability to have input into that process.

The Recreation Council and Advisory Group support recreational facilities and activities in Mira Mesa. The Recreation Council is a charitable organization responsible for supporting and promoting recreational activities in Mira Mesa. The Recreation Advisory Group, on the other hand, is the community conduit to the San Diego Parks & Recreation Department and is responsible for providing input and advice to the City about community recreation programs, facilities, and park development projects. The website for these organizations is https://miramesarecreationcouncil.org/.

A cornerstone of family life in Mira Mesa is our recreational facilities and programs. With the active participation of volunteers and strong guidance from these organizations recreational opportunities in Mira Mesa grow stronger with each passing year. Examples of projects in the works involve major improvements to Mira Mesa Park including a new swimming pool, as well as a new community park in the 3Roots Housing Project, a new joint use park at Salk Elementary AND construction of joint-use fields at Wangenheim Middle School.

Sorry to be so long-winded, but participation in these groups by concerned Mira Mesa residents is vital to the future of our community. So, rather than wondering who makes all these decisions regarding the things that impact us every day, go to a few meetings, ask questions, and find out. I urge everyone to participate as fully as possible in these discussions and decisions.

Now, have a great Mira Mesa October! See you at the Street Fair.

- Ted
