President's Message:
"If not us, who? If not now, when?" - JFK

Looking back to my first message of the year, I talked about an email I received from a Mira Mesa resident itemizing all the problems in our community. I still see many comments on Facebook or Next Door about community problems that usually include the question "why doesn't the city fix this?"

As I said in that first message, no level of government is going to invest the time and money to come to Mira Mesa, survey every street, interview each resident, and fix every issue. WE must identify the problems, and demand that these issues be addressed. If WE will not commit to making our community a better place, why should we expect anyone else to care?

I invited everyone to find one issue (or more if you have the time) and commit to doing something about it. NOW is your chance. Because we traditionally do not have a July meeting, we will instead have meetings to begin addressing some of the issues and concerns that we see every day. Invitations will be posted online, but if you want to participate in a meeting about an issue that is important to you, I invite you to contact me at President@MiraMesaTownCouncil.org to let me know that you are interested.

Here are some of the meetings that we will be hosting:

Don't Forget
MMTC Meeting
June 6th

MIRA MESA TOWN COUNCIL

Streets and Infrastructure – Potholes, poorly maintained parks, missing or damaged signs, faded roadway striping, and dangerous intersections are only a few of the things that need addressing in Mira Mesa. If you would like to be a part of a group that identifies and tracks these issues, this committee is for you.

Neighborhood Watch – We have all seen the fliers and may even have volunteered to be a block captain. However, a community-led program that connects all these individual block captains into a neighborhood group can help strengthen our ability to work with SDPD and the City to share information and address issues. If you want to work toward a safer Mira Mesa, join us for that meeting.

Homelessness – Every neighborhood in San Diego is seeing an increase in homelessness, and we need to tackle the issue before it becomes unmanageable. We have already begun speaking with the City to address issues, but there is so much more that we can do.

The Mira Mesa Town Council is a 501(c)(4) non-profit organized to foster the public welfare of the community. Meetings are held on the first Monday of every month at 7pm. See page 12 for newsletter advertising rates and contact info.

Community Plan Update and High-Density Housing – there is already a group working with the city on the new Community Plan Update. The Mira Mesa Community Planning Group meets the third Monday of each month and has been working through the process of rewriting the Community Plan that will determine the future of Mira Mesa for the next 20 years. The addition of high-density housing, and questions about whether there will be new parks, new schools, more transit, more east/west roads, or other new public facilities to support the increased population will all be part of the plan. The next meeting is on June 20, on Zoom. Make your voice heard while we still have time to address the questions.

Fourth of July – Our annual event has not taken place since COVID arrived in 2020, and unfortunately it will not take place in 2022. In past years, COVID rules have kept the event from taking place. For 2022, the issue is two-fold: (1) money, as inflation has driven the costs far beyond what can be paid for by fees and grants; and (2) the need for volunteers to rebuild the committee and to take on tasks that were previously handled by paid contractors. We also must redesign the event, as the annual fireworks show can no longer be launched from Mira Mesa High School. The new location for the fireworks show is anticipated to be Wangenheim Middle School, but the use of that site will be delayed until at least 2023 due to ongoing construction at the site. Should the Parade and Fun Day remain in the same locations, or should they move closer to the new site of the fireworks show? If we want to bring back the Fourth of July Parade and Fun Day, we must come together to create it.

This list is just the beginning, but it is a positive step toward making Mira Mesa the community we want it to be.

Where we go from here truly depends on us. If not us, who? If not now, when?

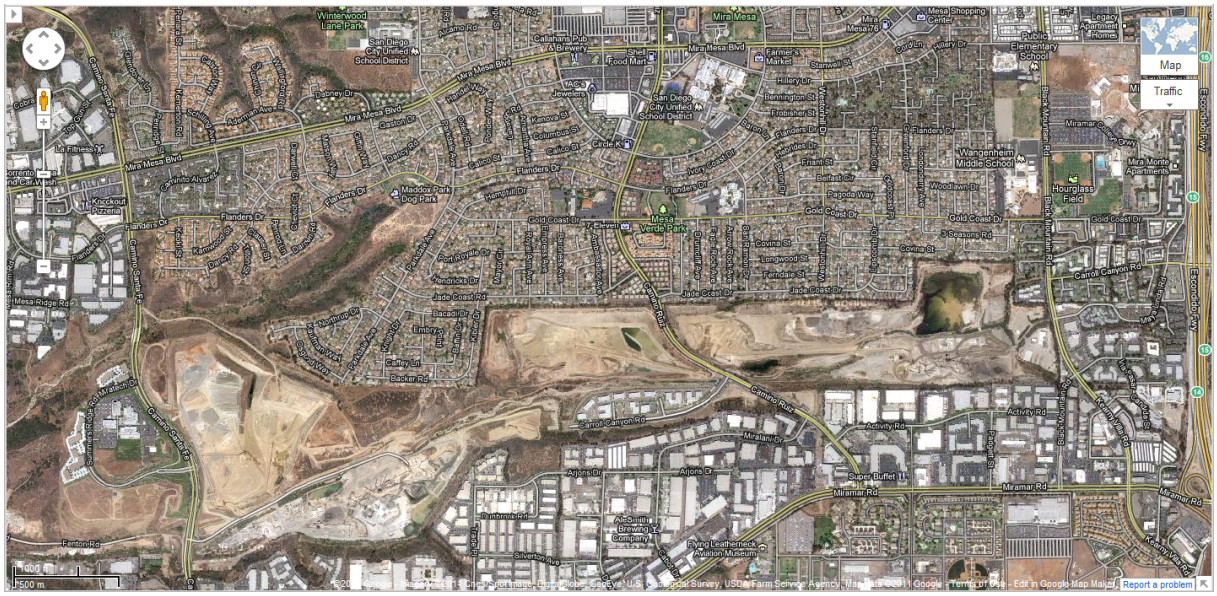
Vulcan's Stone Creek Project

Jeff Stevens, Chair, Mira Mesa Community Planning Group
March 20, 2022

Last month I described the 3Roots project now under development in the western half of Carroll Canyon. East of that project is a larger planned project on the 300 acre property now being mined for sand and gravel by Vulcan Materials. The project is named "Stone Creek."



When the Mira Mesa Community Plan was written in the late 1980's, there was no specific plan for this area, and the Community Plan instead has a section entitled "Carroll Canyon Master Plan Area" with general guidelines for the types of projects that could be developed. The 1992 Community Plan lists four properties in this area:

• Fenton Materials Company operates a mining facility on approximately 500 acres of their 573-acre site in accordance with Conditional Use Permit (CUP) No. 89-0585, which expires in the year 2015.
• The CalMat Company operates a mining facility on approximately 300 acres in accordance with CUP 315-2, which expires in the year 2006.
• The Ruth Lane Estate owns approximately 60 undeveloped acres, which are constrained by steep slopes and the floodplain; and
• El Camino Memorial Park operates a cemetery on a portion of their 200-acre site in accordance with CUP 4120.

The Fenton property was sold to Hanson and is now being developed as 3Roots. The Ruth Lane Estate is the property just north of Carroll Canyon Road and just west of Camino Ruiz that has been developed as the Carroll Canyon Business Park. CalMat was acquired by Vulcan Materials in 1998. The Community Plan states that these three properties should be developed as either:

A. A Transit-Oriented Development (TOD) scenario with an intensive mix of land uses relying heavily on the LRT or other transit forms to reduce automobile use; or
B. A more conventional development scenario with the predominant use being industrial/business parks.

While the Carroll Canyon Business Park followed option B, both 3Roots and Stone Creek are following option A. More details can be found in the Mira Mesa Community Plan.

Vulcan's property east of 3Roots extends all the way to Black Mountain Road, and will be developed as a project containing 4450 housing units together with some commercial and industrial areas.

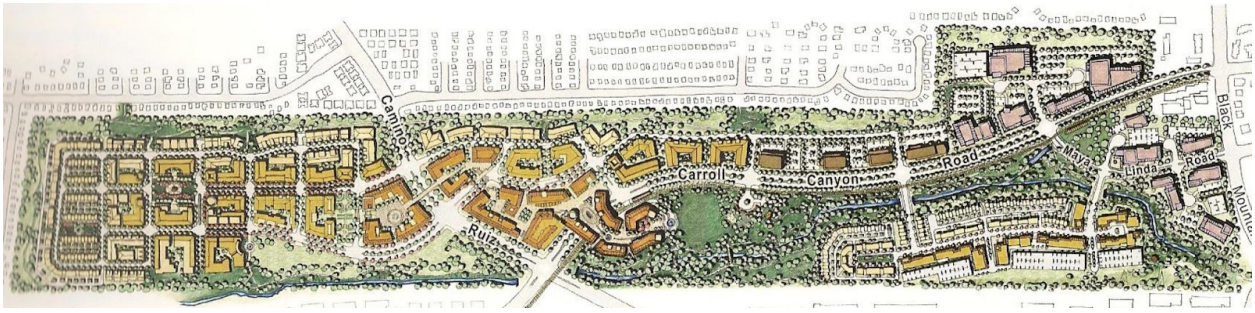
This project will complete the section of Carroll Canyon Road between Camino Ruiz and I-15, which completes the route from I-805 to I-15.



A subcommittee of the Mira Mesa Community Planning Group has reviewed proposals for the Stone Creek project since the first plan was presented in 2006. Final subcommittee meetings were held during August, 2020 and led to a set of recommendations which were approved by the full Planning Group on August 17, 2020. The Planning Group had two primary concerns. The first is that although the project is required to do a series of traffic improvements, many of them are specified as a "fair share" contributions rather than construction of the improvements and we want to make sure the improvements are in place by the time the project is generating traffic. The second is that although Vulcan's architect did a fine job on the design of the project, Vulcan will not be the developer of the project, and we want to make sure that the ultimate developer follows through on the approved design. Stone Creek consists of the five "neighborhoods" shown in the figure and table below. The east end, which will be developed first, is a business/industrial development. The western and central parts of the project are medium to high density residential. There is a large passive park running along Carroll Creek south of Carroll Canyon Road, and more residential south of the park.

Area	Developed Acreage	Residential Units	Commercial Square Feet	Business Square Feet
Village Center	42	1420	150,000	200,000
Westside	71	2725	24,000
Creekside	25	300
Parkside	9			135,000
Eastside	30			415,000
Total	177	4,445	174,000	750,000

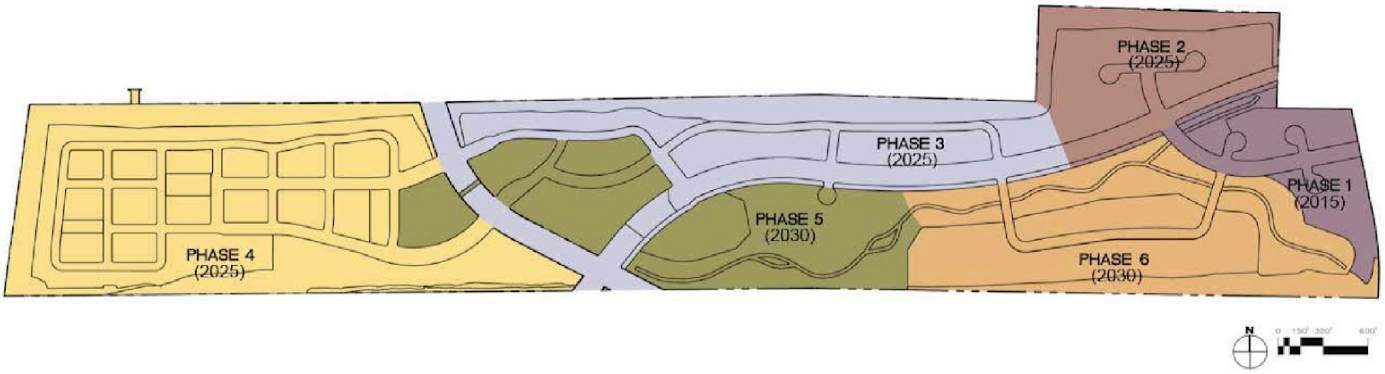
The figure below shows the development phasing plan in the draft Stone Creek master plan. The dates obviously need to be updated since the Eastside project did not start in 2015 and Vulcan is still actively mining the area for gravel. Adding a decade to each number is a better time estimate. If the Eastside industrial area starts in 2025, then we can expect the residential and park areas to develop in 2035-2040.



For more information on these projects and other projects in the Mira Mesa Community, see https://www.miramesatowncouncil.org/mira-mesa-community-planning-group/.

New Banners Coming Soon

New street banners will be coming soon to replace the old, faded banners on Mira Mesa Blvd. Many thanks to Banner Committee chair Jennifer Kvalvik and her students for designing the banners and arranging to have them made and installed on Mira Mesa Blvd.
