Our August meeting will be dedicated to highlighting these projects, and giving an update on their progress. The agenda will feature updates from the offices of Mayor Todd Gloria (Michaels Valk), Councilmember Kent Lee (Ana Serrano), and County Supervisor Terra Lawson-Remer (Evan Bridgham). They will cover all of the largest projects currently underway: Gold Coast Drive Reconstruction, Epicentre Renovations and Reopening, Mira Mesa Community Park Phase 2, and the Pure Water Project pipeline under Miramar Road.

Additionally, our meeting will move back to its traditional location at the Mira Mesa Library, which just completed a long-overdue renovation. If you have not already visited the library since it reopened at the beginning of July, this will be your opportunity to see the results. Join us on Monday, August 5, at 7pm at the Mira Mesa Library to receive an update on these projects and ask your questions.

What is Blueprint San Diego?
Jeff Stevens
July 28, 2024

Last week the San Diego City Council adopted "Blueprint San Diego," a set of major changes to the City of San Diego General Land Use Plan. Details can be found at this link: https://www.sandiego.gov/blueprint-sd. The General Plan provides guidelines for development of Community Plans, with the major change being to encourage higher density development in all communities. While the program has a worthy goal of creating more housing, the proposal has also been accompanied by a great deal of hype.

For example, San Diego Union-Tribune reporter David Garrick wrote on July 22, 2024: "San Diego is considering major changes to the city's blueprint for future growth that would tackle for the first time preparing the city for climate change and reversing significant racial segregation. It would seek to reverse decades of racial and ethnic segregation that began with redlining and got reinforced by single-family zoning policies that remain mostly in place today. If adopted, Blueprint SD would be the first time a San Diego general plan has acknowledged the continuing impacts of redlining — racially discriminatory mortgage lending practices and restrictive housing covenants that kept people of color out of White neighborhoods."

Later in the article, Garrick wrote: "A key priority in Blueprint SD is zoning changes in neighborhoods that have quality schools, high-paying jobs and community amenities like parks. Deemed "high-resource" areas by the state, these mostly White neighborhoods are a crucial place for city officials to start reversing racial and income-based segregation by creating affordable housing, [San Diego City Planning Director Heidi] Vonblum said."

The problem with that is that redlining was outlawed in 1948 and the Civil Rights act was passed in 1964. The first houses in Mira Mesa were built in 1969, so Mira Mesa has never had redlining or racial discrimination in housing. Furthermore, in the early part of its development, Mira Mesa single family homes were designed to be affordable, which is why the community grew so fast in the 1970's and 1980's. Although many of the other communities in the northern part of the City are less affordable than Mira Mesa, they were also built long after housing discrimination was outlawed.

Those last two points are particularly annoying. Why do Mira Mesa and other northern San Diego communities have nicer, newer public facilities that older parts of San Diego? There are three reasons:

1. They are newer.
2. While the northern San Diego communities were developing, San Diego neglected the older communities and let their public facilities deteriorate.
3. Public facilities in newer communities were financed through developer fees assessed to the developers to build public facilities specifically identified in the community plans.

Because of #3, most of the public facilities in the Mira Mesa Community Plan that was developed in the 1980s got built over the last three decades. However, the City has now done away with this program, so new development can no longer be counted on to build the public facilities needed to support it. The additional population will therefore not be accompanied by new public facilities and unless the City changes its policies substantially, the newer, nicer public facilities will be allowed to deteriorate as they have in the older communities.

Gold Coast Drive Construction Update

Gold Coast Drive is closed between Brookhurst Ln and Londonderry Ave. The work involved is relocating water mains at Gold Coast Dr and Baywood Ln, which will allow for future installation of storm drain improvements. The closures will be in effect Monday through Friday, from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., beginning 7/17 through 8/5.

The reconstruction of Gold Coast Drive is the largest, most expensive road repair project undertaken by the City of San Diego. The project includes the installation of storm water infrastructure such as storm drains and inlets, concrete surface improvements like curb ramps and sidewalk repairs, and moving the utility lines beneath the road. Once those projects are completed, all road material will be scrapped away and the road will be completely rebuilt. Gold Coast Drive, which was constructed in the 1970s, was not constructed correctly. The continuing deterioration made it one of the worst roads in San Diego.

Additional information about the Gold Coast Street Reconstruction (Group 1801) can be found at the City's website, https://www.sandiego.gov/SRG180. The project is anticipated to be completed this fall (Fall, 2024).

A complete overview of the project is on the agenda for the August Mira Mesa Ton Council meeting.

National Beach Day

By Kaanchan S Farkiya

National Beach Day is celebrated at the height of Summer, on August 30. National Beach Day is a great opportunity to enjoy the beauty of the coastline and the activities it offers.

Everyone loves to spend a warm day laying on their towel on a sandy beach, making sandcastles, and taking a dip in the beautiful sea. This is the day to celebrate that experience! National Beach Day also raises awareness about how important it is to keep beaches clean so everyone can enjoy them.

The goal of this day is to show appreciation for beaches and show people that they must be kept clean so that future generations can enjoy them as we do!

Through the years the government has taken some actions to ensure that the beaches are clean and safe for people. In 1948 the Clean Water Act was passed, which ensures that water quality and pollution standards keep the waters on beaches clean. Then in 1972, the government passed the Coastal Zone Management Act whose goal is to preserve, protect, and restore the coastal zone of the United States. And finally, in 2000 the BEACH Act was passed, requiring the EPA to set standards for testing and monitoring the water.

Enjoy your National Beach Day by making the most of what the beach

Hello Neighbors,

My family and I had an amazing time celebrating another 4th of July in Mira Mesa. Thank you to the Scripps Mesa Fireworks and Mira Mesa Town Council volunteers for organizing such a wonderful community event. As we head into August, parents (including Phuong and me) can start the countdown to SDUSD's first day of school on August 12th!

On July 17th, the County Board of Supervisors unanimously approved the lease agreement for the Mira Mesa Epicentre. This is another huge step toward completing this project. Thank you to Supervisor Lawson-Remer for your work and support.

We recently celebrated the 30th anniversary of the Mira Mesa Library. Libraries are incredible community spaces, and this one is a shining example. A big thank you to the librarians who constantly adapt and create programs that engage and connect over 80,000 Mira Mesa residents to valuable resources. Your dedication and advocacy for our community are truly appreciated. Congratulations, again, on 30 incredible years.

The City of San Diego's Community, Projects, Programs, and Services (CPPS) and Arts, Culture, and Community Festivals (ACCF) City Council funding programs have been renewed for Fiscal Year 2025. City Council Offices award funding to nonprofit organizations and public agencies for community, social, environmental, cultural, and recreational needs for lawful public purposes. The CPPS application deadline is approaching (July 8 – August 9, 2024), and ACCF applications will open soon (August 19 – September 13, 2024). For more information about the programs and application processes, please visit https://www.sandiego.gov/citycouncil/cpps or https://www.sandiego.gov/citycouncil/accf.

Jones's measure to save off-highway vehicle competitions unanimously passes

SENATE MINORITY LEADER
BRIAN W. JONES

"SB 708 had another successful committee hearing with more bipartisan backing from our years of efforts to get this important legislation passed," said Senator Brian W. Jones. "We've worked hard for the past five years with OHV stakeholders and affected governmental agencies, including State Parks and the Air Resources Board. SB 708 is a true consensus measure that will allow OHV competition riders to continue their sport in a safe and responsible manner while being a strong part of the recreational economies in rural and suburban California."

Senate Bill 708 establishes a special permit so Californians may operate certain off-road motorcycles at sanctioned events. Specifically, the measure will create a new sanctioned event permit program for competition motorcycles to replace the Red Sticker registration program that ended in 2021. SB 708 will provide a cost-effective, bureaucratically streamlined identification decal that is to be displayed on competition motorcycles when operated at sanctioned events on public lands.

Competition OHVs have long been regulated through the Red Sticker program under the California Air Resources Board (CARB). This program has allowed competition OHVs to operate in the state for the past two decades. However, the Red Sticker program ended in 2021 with no program to replace it.

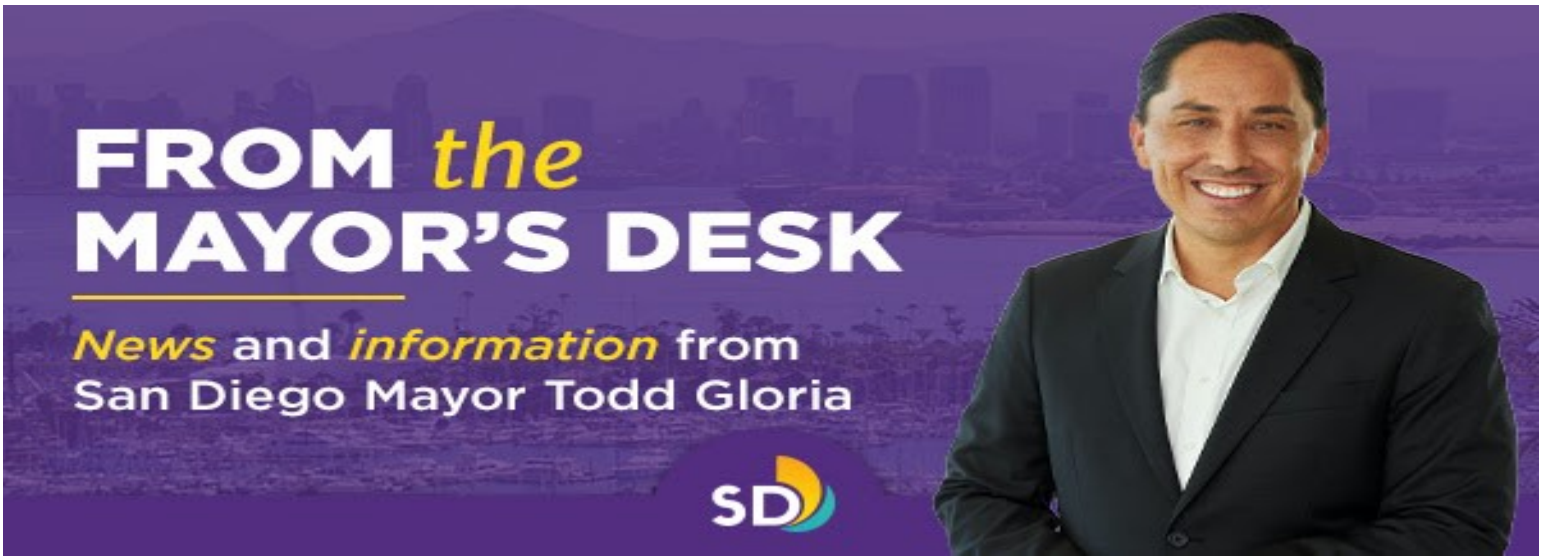
Without a new program, OHV competitions on public lands have been thrown into confusion as rules now fall to the individual land managers causing inconsistencies across the state. This uncertainty negatively impacts local businesses, jobs, and the economy of many rural and suburban regions that have long-hosted competitions. Additionally, funding for environmental work and law enforcement has also been lost.

SB 708 is cosponsored by the Coalition for Public Access, and is supported by ABATE of California, AirFlow Heating, American Motorcyclist Association, ARCH Motorcycle Company, Bay Area Riders Forum, California Custom Trailers & Powersports, California Motorcycle Dealers Association, California Wilderness Coalition, Chaparral Motorsports, CJC Club, District 36 Motorcycle Sports Committee, Inc., FMF Racing, Fox Racing, Hardline Products Inc., K and B Motorsports, KTM North American, Malcom Smith Motorcycles, Motion Pro Inc, Motorcycle Industry Council, OC Motorcycle, San Diego Off-Road Coalition, Sierra Motor Sports, Siskiyou County Off-Road Riders, Spirit Motorcycles San Jose, Thorsport Racing, Timekeepers Motorcycle Club, Tracy Motorsports Inc., Tuleyome, Yoshimura, and 40 Plus Vintage Group.

SB 708 is the fourth attempt by Leader Jones to fix OHV competitions in California. Leader Jones's bipartisan Senate Bill 1024 (2020) was on the verge of a Senate concurrence vote when the legislative session adjourned at midnight on August 31, 2020. His bipartisan Senate Bill 227 (2021) passed out of the Senate with bipartisan support, but died on the Assembly Appropriations Suspense file. Leader Jones's bipartisan Senate Bill 894 (2022) passed out of both the Senate and Assembly with strong bipartisan support, but was vetoed by Governor Gavin Newsom due to its fiscal impact on the Department of Motor Vehicles. This year's SB 708 addresses concerns from previous versions of the bill, including Governor Newsom's veto message.

"We are committed to fixing OHV competitions in California," continued Leader Jones. "While our past three efforts have stalled, we are hopeful that this fourth attempt will succeed. We are not giving up."

After its unanimous passage in policy committee, SB 708 now heads to the Assembly Appropriations Committee for consideration.



City Leads the Way in County Surge of Housing Permits, Setting a 17-Year Record

The City of San Diego led the region as we achieved a significant milestone in our ongoing efforts to tackle the housing crisis, permitting more housing units in 2023 across the county than in the past 17 years.

Last year, the county issued a total of 11,673 building permits, marking a 21% increase from 2022. The City led this surge by permitting 9,691 of these homes, accounting for 83% of the county's total.

This achievement is a testament to our ongoing commitment to building more housing that all San Diegans can afford. It also serves as a call to action for other cities and unincorporated areas to step up their efforts in addressing a housing shortage that is driving up rents and home prices and causing many lower-income San Diegans to fall into homelessness.

The rest of the county needs to follow San Diego's lead in creating more housing opportunities and implementing innovative programs to encourage residential construction.

Together, we can continue to make strides in solving our housing crisis and ensuring that every San Diegan has a place to call home.

Dear Friend,

Welcome back to our deep-dive policy newsletters! In honor of San Diego Pride, this week's newsletter explains what I'm doing in Congress to support, protect, and celebrate the LGBTQ+ community and how I celebrated Pride in San Diego.

I've had so much fun at all the local Pride events – from attending the Spirit of Stonewall Rally to joining faith leaders at Light Up The Cathedral. I also heard people's lived experiences about being queer in East County at Lemon Grove Pride Vibes. At every one of these events, I've seen the overwhelming love, strength, and resilience of queer folks in our community.

I also hosted a listening session last month during National Pride Month with community leaders, organizations, and youth who work to expand access to gender-affirming care. Many of you already know that I'm so proud to have a trans brother and a gender non-conforming sibling – so I've personally seen the importance of folks getting this care.

We also can't forget that Pride is still a protest. And that's even more true today with Republicans introducing over 500 anti-LGBTQ+ bills in state legislatures across the country. And their hateful movement hasn't stopped there: since Republicans took the House majority, they've passed anti-LGBTQ+ legislation from banning gender-affirming care to censoring school curricula to targeting drag performances. Thankfully, the Senate has blocked most of these measures.

Through my role as Vice-Chair of the Congressional Equality Caucus and Co-Chair of the Transgender Equality Task Force, I'm working to counter this hate by educating my colleagues who are ignorant or maybe unaware of the harm their words and policies are causing – including by introducing them to my siblings; calling out my colleagues for their hateful policies; and celebrating the LGBTQ+ community – whether it's sharing about my siblings, introducing pro-LGBTQ+ legislation, or uplifting LGBTQ+ stories and leaders.

I'm also proud to have introduced legislation – like the Ensuring Military Readiness Not Discrimination Act to prohibit discrimination in the military and protect trans service members and a resolution to recognize International Transgender Day Of Visibility.

I know that all of this anti-LGBTQ hate can be incredibly painful and triggering for the LGBTQ+ community and their loved ones. So, if you're part of this community, make sure that you're taking care of yourself and your loved ones. And, know that I'm here in Congress working hard to ensure that all LGBTQ+ people can exist freely and authentically everywhere.

MIRA MESA EPICENTRE TO BE RENOVATED

SAN DIEGO COUNTY SUPERVISOR
TERRA LAWSON-REMER

"A new Epicentre will change Mira Mesa for the better," said Supervisor Lawson-Remer, Vice-Chair, Board of Supervisors. "We're getting rid of an unsightly eyesore and replacing it with a community gathering place that can be enjoyed by folks from all walks of life for many years to come. I am excited to have led the charge on this redevelopment, and I appreciate Councilmember Kent Lee's partnership. Together, we're making the community's wish for a new Epicentre as reality."

On July 2, the City of San Diego approved the lease agreement between the City and County. At the City of San Diego, Councilmember Kent Lee was the driving force in getting the deal done.

"This partnership between the City and County will deliver on a decades-long community dream. I want to thank our County Supervisors and all the people who have lent their voices in support of this project, from local community groups to students at Mira Mesa High School. I've heard from so many residents asking when this property will be brought back to life, and this lease agreement is one of the final steps needed to re-activate this building for the benefit of the community," said Lee, District 6 City Councilmember, City of San Diego.

The Mira Mesa Epicentre will be reopen as a recreation center for youth, with programming that reflect the preferences of the community, including: tutoring, mentoring, career counseling, performing and visual arts, gardening, cooking, various recreational classes, intergenerational activities, and rentable space for meetings and events.

Design features of the facility will include the community's preference for a lounge area, game tables and consoles, workstations and a homework area, a music room, fitness equipment, a stage, a demonstration kitchen, and a multipurpose space.

Preferred exterior amenities include central gathering areas, open turf areas, garden areas, and outdoor sport courts.

The Mira Mesa Epicentre is slated to open in Fiscal Year 2025-26.
