Dear Mira Mesa,

San Diego County is heading into a difficult budget year, driven largely by steep cuts in federal funding for Medicaid and Food Assistance that are squeezing counties across America. This is why we are redoubling our efforts to find efficiencies, eliminate waste, and modernize how government operates – so we can limit cuts to our 9-1-1 emergency response and our efforts to confront major challenges like the Tijuana Sewage Crisis. We're digging under every rock to confront the funding challenges ahead. Here's an example of what we've found so far.

A Smart Way to Save Millions

This week, the County Board of Supervisors approved a concrete set of actions to modernize how the County operates and eliminate unnecessary costs — without cutting services that residents rely on. I co-authored this proposal with Supervisor Monica Montgomery Steppe because it's important that governments do the hard internal work first of scrutinizing its operations before asking residents to shoulder any additional burden.

Old Tech, New Savings

Let's get specific: Over the past several years — especially during the COVID-19 pandemic — the County successfully adapted to remote and hybrid work and adopted secure, software-based communication tools to keep services accessible. To ensure reliability during that transition, legacy systems like desk phones, fax machines, and analog phone lines were kept in place. But today, looking at the data confirmed what you've probably guessed: these outmoded systems aren't as necessary as they once were.

When was the last time you sent a fax? For most of us, probably not any time recently. By accelerating the transition to modern communications tools already in use, consolidating phone systems, returning unused devices, and replacing physical fax machines with virtual options, we expect to save between $1.5 million and $7 million every year. Phones will still be answered. Services will still be delivered. But taxpayers will stop paying for things we no longer need. Modernizing, cutting waste, and protecting public services. This is what we're doing, and we'll keep pushing for more savings to come.

In service,

Terra

February 2026 Issue | Mira Mesa

Hello Mira Mesa Neighbors,

As we begin 2026, I'm grateful to continue serving as Council President Pro Tem and Chair of the Land Use & Housing Committee. My 2026 Council Committee assignments include:

- Chair of the Land Use and Housing Committee
- Vice Chair of the Rules Committee
- Vice Chair of the Economic Development and Intergovernmental Relations Committee
- Member of the Active Transportation and Infrastructure Committee
- Member of the Budget and Government Efficiency Committee

I've also been reappointed to represent our region on both the San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) and the North County Transit District - two regional planning committees responsible for key transportation infrastructure across San Diego. These appointments will give me the opportunity to continue fighting for better infrastructure and investments for San Diegans and District 6 residents.

In January, I attended the Mira Mesa Town Council meeting to swear in the new and continuing board members, congratulations to all. While in attendance, I had the chance to share several key updates from the City as well as listen in on feedback regarding ongoing infrastructure projects as well as hot topics such as Balboa Park parking.

As many of you may be aware, I have been vocal about my immense frustration with the haphazard rollout of paid parking in Balboa Park to start the year. As a result, I asked the administration to suspend resident fees – and the Mayor refused. In response, I am pushing for key changes to the program that would benefit residents, starting by expanding free all-day resident parking options. We can and should continue to make changes based on the feedback we have received from residents and our cultural institutions -- and I will continue to fight to achieve a balanced result.

As always, if you have any concerns, don't hesitate to contact our office. Please reach out to our Mira Mesa Community Representative, Ana Serrano, at AISerrano@sandiego.gov.

Warm regards,

Council President Pro Tem Kent Lee

Presidents Day

Presidents' Day is a federal holiday in the United States celebrated on the third Monday of February. This year, it falls on Monday, February 16, 2026. The holiday originally honored George Washington's birthday, which is February 22, but was moved to the third Monday in February in 1971 to create a three-day weekend for federal employees.

While it's commonly referred to as Presidents' Day, the official name is still Washington's Birthday. Some states also honor Abraham Lincoln's birthday, February 12, on this day.

Presidents Day is a federal holiday with a rich history.

Some fun facts:
- Washington's birthplace is a national monument in Colonial Beach, VA.
- Lincoln's birthday is February 12, 1809, and his birthplace is a national historical park in Hodgenville, KY.
- 35 national parks are named after US presidents.
- Roosevelt and Lincoln top the list of presidents with parks named in their honor.

Here are some ideas to celebrate Presidents' Day:

- Learn about US history: Dive into the lives of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, or other presidents.
- Visit a presidential museum or library : Many offer free or discounted admission.
- Attend a parade or event : Check local listings for celebrations.
- Shop 'til you drop : Take advantage of sales on everything from mattresses to cars.
- Host a patriotic party : Invite friends over for some red, white, and blue fun.
- Try a presidential-themed recipe: Like George Washington's cherry pie or Abe Lincoln's favorite foods.

One of my favorite quotes is:

- "The power is in the people." - George Washington
