San Diego City Council: Kent Lee

Hello Mira Mesa Neighbors,

Following the Epicentre grand re-opening, we marked another huge milestone for the Mira Mesa community. In early October, we gathered to celebrate the completion of Mira Mesa Community Park Phase II. This $55 million project included a new aquatic complex; an all-wheel plaza accessible to skateboarders, roller skaters, scooter riders, bikers and wheelchair users; two children's play areas; two multi-use sports courts; open grass areas; a public art piece; a parking lot; ADA-accessible walkways; and new lighting, landscaping and irrigation. The Mira Mesa Gil Johnson Recreation Center also received renovations, including new heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and roofing, as well as repaired wood and finishes and a fresh coat of paint on the exterior.

This 17-acre space south of New Salem Street was transformed into something our community has envisioned for more than twenty years. As Mira Mesa continues to grow, the need for recreational spaces is clear, and this park will serve as an important hub for activity, connection, and recreation. This once-in-a-generation project delivers something for every member of our community.

The new aquatic complex includes a 14-lane competition pool, an activity pool, and a splash pad. The competition pool was designed with Mira Mesa High School's swim and water polo teams in mind, so students can finally compete in the sports they love, close to school and home.

Following the official opening, our office hosted a Community Celebration, which brought hundreds of local families to the new park. Thank you to everyone who came out to celebrate with us.

Over at the library, I had the pleasure of joining the SDSU Bilingual Development in Context Research Lab for the launch of their new book collection and event highlighting Vietnamese English bilingualism and Asian identity. The celebration included readings by two award-winning authors and highlighted the 163 new books for preschool and elementary-aged children now available at the Mira Mesa Library.

This project was made possible through funding from the City Council Community Projects, Programs & Services Award. Read more about the program at https://bdc.sdsu.edu

Finally, our team had a great time connecting with the community at the Annual Mira Mesa Street Fair. Thank you to the MMTC volunteers for putting together this event each year!

As always, if you have any concerns, don't hesitate to contact our office. Please reach out to our Mira Mesa Community Representative, Isabella Kalivas, at IKalivas@sandiego.gov.

Warm regards, Council President Pro Tem Kent Lee

San Diego County Board of Supervisors: Terra Lawson-Remer

Dear Mira Mesa,

Some corporations treat the law the same way most of us treat the Terms and Conditions on every app we download: scroll past it, click "accept," and carry on.

Starting now, San Diego County has a team whose job is to read the fine print, and enforce it.

This week, we officially launched the County's new Consumer Fairness and Public Protection Unit.

Did we cut a ribbon? Nope. We went to court and filed three lawsuits on day one.

Parental Controls Are Not a Suggestion

I'm a mom. When I hand my daughter a tablet, I expect that the safety settings I turn on actually work, that "safe for kids" means safe for kids, and that companies tell parents the truth and follow the law.

This is the bare minimum. When companies can't clear a bar that low, someone has to enforce the rules.

Here's what our new team is taking on:

AppLovin: We allege parents turned on controls, but AppLovin's technology went around them. Children were served ads for adult dating, alcohol, vaping, and cannabis in games. We also allege improper collection of data that could reveal a child's home, school, and sleeping patterns.

Roblox: Marketed to parents as a safe place to play. We allege it failed to stop adults posing as children, contacting young users, and grooming them.

Polymaker: A 3D-printing filament maker. We allege it deliberately courted people printing untraceable ghost guns. Earlier this year, San Diego police arrested a 16-year-old with a loaded gun at school and found Polymaker filament in a gun-printing setup at his home.

I've seen this before. After the 2008 crash, I was teaching in New York and sending graduate students into a job market with nothing to offer them. Wall Street took the risks, kept the profits, and handed everyone else the bill.

America's answer to that disaster was a federal consumer watchdog bureau. But the Trump Administration signed a law cutting its budget nearly in half, tried to fire 90 percent of its staff, and walked away from cases that could have returned more than $3 billion to consumers.

That is why I made a promise in my State of the County Address: if Washington steps back, San Diego would step up.

The Board of Supervisors approved my proposal in March, and we are now building a team of experts whose job is simple: go after companies that break the law.

San Diego families are already paying more for groceries, housing, and childcare. They shouldn't also pay for a company's shortcuts. Businesses playing by the rules should not lose to the ones that cheat.

These are our first cases. They will not be our last. Companies that break the law should consider themselves on notice.

In service,

Terra

Mira Mesa Community Park Phase 2 Now Open

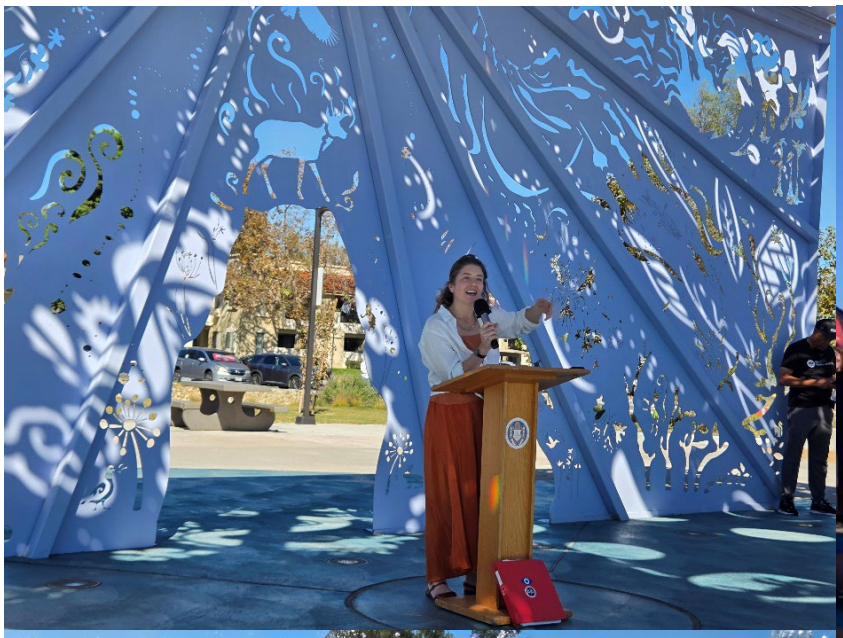
Mira Mesa Community Park Phase 2 is now open. The City and project partners celebrated completion with a ribbon cutting by the pool on October 1, 2026. The $55 million improvements include the new aquatic complex, all-wheels plaza, renovation of the recreation center, playgrounds, and upgraded courts. MMTC also highlighted a community celebration on October 24. The aerial photograph shows the project site during construction in August 2026.

Mira Mesa Community Recreation Group

The Mira Mesa Community Recreation Group (known as the Mira Mesa Recreation Council in past years) meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7 PM at the Lopez Ridge Park recreation center. All residents and anyone interested in Mira Mesa parks and recreation are welcome and encouraged to attend. See https://miramesarecreationcouncil.org for more information. If you wish to be added to the email list to receive agendas and minutes, contact Area Manager Claudia Apodaca capodaca@sandiego.gov.

Mira Mesa Community Park Phase 2 Completed!

The Mira Mesa Community Park Phase 2 improvements were completed on schedule. A ribbon-cutting was held on October 1 and on October 24, a community celebration was held with all facilities open. Famed Mira Mesa skateboarder Willie Santos cut the ribbon to open the new skate park by skating through the ribbon with some giant scissors. The new pool was open for three hours of free swimming during the event. Artist Kate Clark who designed and built the new “Songs of Mira Mesa” sculpture was there along with several young people who had participated in the design.



Mira Mesa Community Planning Group

On the opening of Mira Mesa Community Park Phase 2
By Jeff Stevens, Chair, Mira Mesa Community Planning Group

These are comments that I made at the ribbon-cutting for the new Mira Mesa Community Park Phase 2:

I want to welcome you all to this beautiful new facility for Mira Mesa!

I chair the Mira Mesa Community Planning Group and so I am going to give you a two-minute introduction to what it takes to achieve something like this:

A community pool for Mira Mesa was included in the 1992 Mira Mesa Community Plan. Originally, it was supposed to be located on a new Community Park south of Challenger Middle School, but that park could not be built due to vernal pools on the site, so it was relocated here, to Mira Mesa Community Park.

This park as well as the library and all of the other parks that have been built since 1990 were funded by developer fees through the Facilities Benefit Assessment (FBA) program. Although the FBA program was effective, it was slow because we had to wait for enough money to accumulate to build the next facility. Bruce Brown and I worked with City staff every year for two decades to update the FBA plan and improve projections.

Figure 1. The MMHS Water Polo Team were the first into the pool. MMHS principal Jeff Sabins is standing on the side. He later jumped into the pool fully clothed!

In 2019, it finally looked like there would be enough money to build the pool within the next couple of years, so the Recreation Council held workshops to finalize the design. The high school water polo teams turned out in force for those meetings to say that they wanted a bigger, deeper pool to support their program, and as a result we have a bigger, deeper pool here today.

Then in 2021 the project was almost derailed. The City passed the Parks Master Plan which terminated the FBA programs before enough money had been collected to build the pool. The project was saved by the last phase of Casa Mira View and Three Roots starting development just in time to fully fund the project, and so, today, we are celebrating completion of an extraordinary new facility for the community.

I want to thank all of the people who have worked to make this possible. Some, like Bruce Brown, Ted Brengel and Al Radick who worked for many years to make this happen are no longer with us to celebrate. I particularly want to thank Joe Frichtel who has been a tireless advocate for this park and all Mira Mesa Parks. I want to thank PCL Construction Services for doing a great job building this park and getting it done on schedule. And finally I want to thank Kent Lee for getting the project across the finish line with the City Council's solid support behind it so we can celebrate today.

Mira Mesa Street Fair – Hot but Successful!

The 26th annual Mira Mesa Street Fair was held on October 3, 2026! For the second time in 26 years the temperature was over 100 degrees! Nevertheless guests enjoyed live music and other entertainment on two stages, a Fun Zone with inflatables and other attractions for kids and teens, and a food court with an international flair from 10am to 5pm, on Camino Ruiz from Mira Mesa Blvd. to New Salem Street.

RC Realty won the prize for the best us of the Hawaiian theme of the Street Fair.

Mira Mesa Fire Safe Council

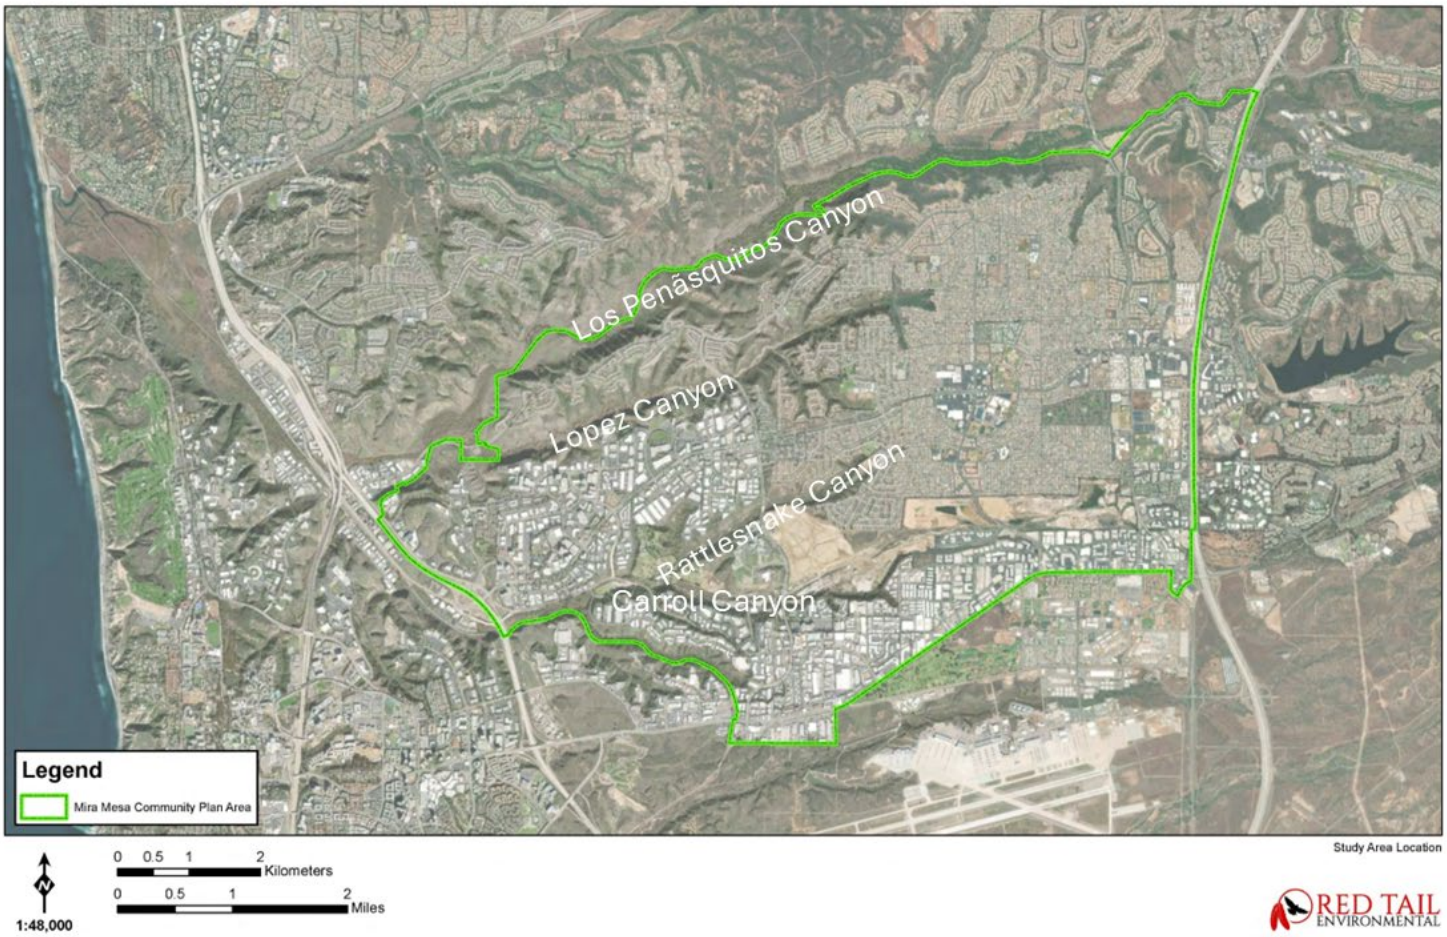
The Mira Mesa Fire Safe Council is one of over 50 Community Councils in San Diego County The Council's mission is to initiate and support a broad inclusive community movement to better prepare Mira Mesa homes for wildfire events.

Our first phase primary focus is to educate our neighbors in every neighborhood to understand why recent wildfires have been so devastating in some communities, and how we as neighbors can work together to mitigate hazards and interrupt the mechanisms that allow wildfire to penetrate into the built environment.

Having activated our residents, we will introduce programs to provide knowledge and assistance to homeowners engaged in landscape renovation and home hardening projects, individually and at the block and community level.

These programs can be effective very quickly, but many will take years to fully implement. We are ready to keep the movement vital and growing.

The Mira Mesa Fire Safe Council gave a presentation at the October Mira Mesa Town Council Meeting. An updated presentation on the Fire Safe Council will be made at the November 16, 2026 Mira Mesa Community Planning Group meeting at 7 PM in the Mira Mesa Library



Four major canyons run through the Mira Mesa Community and are potential paths for fires.
