Mayor Gloria's Visit to Washington DC & Glasgow, Scotland

- Two weeks ago Mayor Gloria is in Washington D.C. to participate in the Aspen Security Forum, an annual national security and foreign policy conference and then the following week went to Glasgow, Scotland to participate in COP26 which is the United Nations Climate Change Conference where at both conferences he was asked to speak on several panels to highlight the City of San Diego's leadership on climate change and highlighting the City's "Our Climate, Our Future" initiative

"Our Climate, Our Future" Initiative

- Last week, Mayor Todd Gloria announced his "Our Climate, Our Future" initiative
- This initiative is a multi-faceted approach to address the climate crisis, improve public health and quality of life, and drive innovation and opportunity in our regional economy.
- The first phase includes
 - updating the City's Climate Action Plan (which the Mayor authored when he was previously interim Mayor in 2014)
 - releasing the City's first climate adaption plan--Climate Resilient SD
 - implementing an innovative Municipal Energy Strategy for City Operations
 - a new approach to land use planning called Blueprint SD
 - and commitments to advance equity and achieve net zero emissions by 2035
- On December 2 and December 4 there will be two forums for the community to participate in. You can find more information on the Climate Action Plan
